

CONGRESS.

Owing to the impassable state of the Ohio River, we have no later Congressional news, than the following from the Hagerstown Democrat of the 5th.

In the Senate, the report of Mr. Grundy, on Mr. Benton's Resolutions, denying the right and power of the Federal Government to assume the liquidation of the debts of the several States, was under discussion.

The report among other things, shows from the most authentic sources of information, that the several States of this Union owe to Europe the enormous debt of 200 millions of dollars.

In the House, the Resolution "to reject all petitions appertaining to the abolition of slavery," was passed. The vote stood thus: 114 in the affirmative, and 108 in the negative.

No Chaplain elected yet.

Measures Blair and Rives have been elected Printers to the House. The vote was as follows:

JURIES BEFORE JUSTICES.

The bill to allow juries before justices of the peace having passed both Houses of the General Assembly, is now a law of the land. Its principal provisions are, that either party to a suit has the power of demanding a jury of six men before proceeding to trial. If, however, the parties can agree upon a less number, they are empowered to do so. The right of appeal is prohibited in all cases where the amount of the judgment, exclusive of costs, is less than twenty dollars. The magistrate, however, is compelled to sign a bill of exceptions when required by a party considering himself aggrieved, and to certify the same upon a writ of certiorari. This measure introduces a new system into our jurisprudence, and consequently met with much opposition in both branches of the legislature. It has proved satisfactory to the people of other States, and will, undoubtedly, be a popular innovation in Ohio.

A CONTRAST.

The Baltimore Banks are in a state of suspension. One of them has cashed paper for one speculator, to the amount of $120,000, who, like itself, is bankrupt. About the time of this failure a poor widow, with her family, died from want of food and fuel, and hundreds of poor people were in a state of destitution. Hard times—corrupt villany—broken banks—wealthy bankers. Down with them.

O. S. Bulletin.

DEFALCATIONS.—The Indiana Democrat says:—It is a fact that more than five millions of the people's money, has either been squandered or unaccounted for by those who have had the agency in borrowing and disbursing. Facts the most astounding will be disclosed by the democratic branch of the Legislature.

By a late report of the Bank Commissioners of the State Bank of Alabama it has been shown that the aggregate loss of the State Bank insolvencies and the defalcation of one of the Bank agents of England falls but little short of five millions of dollars. (Staub. Union.)

WAR.—Give me the money that has been spent in war, and I will purchase every foot of land upon the globe. I will clothe every man, woman and child in an attire that kings and queens would be proud of. I would build a school house upon every hill side and in every valley over the whole habitable earth; I will supply that school house with a competent teacher; I will build an academy in every town, and endow it; a college in every state, and fill it with able professors; I will crown every hill with a church consecrated to the promulgation of the gospel of peace; I will support in its pulpit an able teacher of righteousness, so that on every Sabbath morning the chime on one hill should answer to the chime on another, around the earth's broad circumference, and the voice of prayer, and the song of praise should ascend like an universal holocaust to Heaven.—Stebbins.

THE New York Sunday Mercury of the 26th ult. says:

NORTH EASTERN BOUNDARY. The Philadelphia National Gazette of Wednesday, speaking of the North Eastern Boundary Question, says:—We may remark that an express from the Governor General of Canada, with despatches for the British Minister at Washington, arrived in this city last night, in the short time of five days from Toronto, U. C. and proceeded to Washington this morning. We of course, are ignorant of the object of this mission, but we believe that this question will never be settled by negotiation, and if John Bull and Brother Jonathan are to have a knock down by way of settling, we say let them come up to the scratch at once. Let us drink.

JUDGE LYNCH IN PETTICOATS.

A Methodist clergyman in Adrian, Mich., read from the desk the name of several ladies by way of reproach for giggling, whispering, and otherwise disturbing a protracted meeting in which he was engaged—whereupon they way-laid him on his way to the meeting house in the evening, and gave him a caning. Are they a specimen of the young ladies of Michigan? O. S. Bulletin.

FIRES IN NEW YORK.—Two disastrous fires have lately occurred in New York, destroying property to the amount of a million and a half of dollars. Among the things consumed, were 2,000 pipes of olive oil, 100 bales of wool, 700 crates of earthenware, and 12,000 chests of tea.

"Marm," said a little urchin to his mother, as he stood licking a molasses cup, "I want you to get me an India rubber life preserver, so I needn't never die."

The Ohio River at Pittsburg has broken up, the waters rising seven feet, carrying off the ice and thus crushing 14 coal boats, which went down with their cargoes. Also, two, or three Steamboats were sunk, besides other damages.

Important Rumor. Several rumors of the greatest importance, says the Georgetown Advocate of Thursday, were in circulation in Washington in evening, which we cannot vouch for the correctness of. The first is, that Mr. Fox, the English Minister, has notified the President that he has received instructions from his Government, in case of any measure, offensive or defensive, being adopted by his country in relation to the Boundary Question, to ask for his passport and return home forthwith. If this be true, and is carried out, it will be a virtual declaration of war with this country.

Wm. Johnson, the hero of the thousand Isles, has been sentenced to one year's imprisonment, for a breach of the neutrality laws.

Wise saws. Never go to sleep in church.

Better be the head of the yeomanry, than the head of the gentry.

Call me cousin, but cozen me not.

Do as the maids do, say no, and take it.

He that would have no trouble in the world must not be born in it.

If all the fools wore white caps, we should look like a flock of geese.

It may be necessary sometimes to hold a candle to the devil.

That is but an empty purse, that is full of other folks money.

We are born crying, live complaining, and die disappointed.

When all men say you are an ass, it is time to bray.

So great a number of disappointed office-seekers left Detroit for their homes the second week after the session of the Legislature, that several extra cars were put upon the railroad.

Ohio S. Bulletin.

A disgraced Man.—The following is an extract from a letter from Gen. Harrison in 1816—published in Niles' Register.

"A vote of the Senate of the United States has attached to my name a DISGRACE which I am convinced no time or no effort of mine will ever be able to efface." (Era.)

O. S. Bulletin.

What's the difference between a man who sits down deliberately in his bank-parlor and signs a half a million of notes which he knows he cannot, and never intends to pay, and one who commits one of these 'promises to pay'?" Why, that the former is considered a 'smart business man,' and fawned upon as a marvellous proper man, whilst the latter is incarcerated in prison for a number of years for his impunity; but in our opinion, the first is the greater villain of the two. (Wil. Gaz.)

It is believed in London that the Government have sent out orders for the blockade of the Chinese ports, and that this is to be done by Sir Francis Maitland with a 74 gun ship and some frigates. The merchants are resolved to carry on the opium smuggling as before.

Two BRUTES in human shape were recently taken before the Recorder's Court Philadelphia, and bound over, for insulting respectable females. They turned out to be married men. Their names are Patrick Morris and George Taylor. "Pass em round."
